Dang... sorry to hear Rafik. Bit of delay just adds to the mystique and expectations.

Hope you're having a great night.

Good afternoon LFVBID board members,

As a volunteer board it sometimes gets difficult to run our own business and do work for our business community. With that said we still have made a commitment to our constituents to "work" for them and promote, clean and support them. Our first mixer had a very low turnout as we did not advertise it sufficiently.

Each of you bring to the table great ideas and we need to begin each project to completion. We have trash cans that we just voted on and they will be replaced. I'm waiting for one board member to get back to me about the welding that we need before I place the order. We also have our website word press being upgraded and LFVBID email addresses being formulated for each of us. We need to go back to the drawing board about our BID directory map.

As of today our financials are very good and we have the funds to finish all of these projects to completion. I am saying all of this as a reminder of what we have done and what we still need to do. Our pledge to our constituents is to hold mixers and cleanups on a regular basis and to distribute a quarterly newsletter stating what we have done. We also need to have the trash picked up along with our regular monthly e-blasts. Some of these are contractual obligations with the city. This is what our promise is to them and to our City Council.

Since we are a week out and our April mixer has not been advertised I have no choice than to cancel this event and reschedule for another date. At our next committee meeting please let us discuss this and other projects that we have on the table. I'm very concerned with our BIG Sunday project too. I had us registered for that date and as of today have no information as to who and what we have done...I know the where and the when but it is concerning. I do not like to do things last minute and it does not provide us with the best results. For all those that spoke up at our past meetings and had things to do with BIG Sunday, please contact me with an update. I do not want to waste the cities resources and funds by having an event with only 4 of us there.

I emailed you earlier this morning regarding our hearing at City Hall next week for our contract renewal. I personally am happy to do the work and I know a few of you are very personally committed to our business community, but I cannot do all of the work myself. I asked at our last board meeting about each of your commitments and today I want each of you to email me back with that commitment with our next event, BIG Sunday which is coming upon us in 2 weeks.
